The Second Week of Advent

Scripture Reflection: "And Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the city of Nazareth, to Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and lineage of David, to be enrolled with Mary, his betrothed, who was with child. And while they were there, the time came for her to be delivered. And she gave birth to her first-born son and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn." Luke 2:4-7

Advent Wreath Prayer: Dear Jesus, you entered our world on Christmas as the Prince of Peace. This Advent, as we strive to become the-best-version-of-ourselves, fill us with a deep and abiding peace. Help us share that peace with everyone we encounter, especially those who need it most. Amen.

Prayer for Eucharistic Revival

Lord Jesus, You are the living bread who satisfies the hunger of the human heart. In the Eucharist, the bread and wine become Your Body and Blood, the gift of Yourself to the Church. Deepen our faith in Your Eucharistic presence and strengthen us as members of the Church, the Body of Christ.

As we encounter and revere Your Eucharistic presence, open us to the needs of our brothers and sisters here and everywhere throughout the world.

Help us to reveal Your love, Your promise, Your presence to them by our lives and in all we say and do. Amen.

Dear Parishioners,

Illusive Peace, 2023

Although the Prophet Isaiah names the Messiah a Prince of Peace, our observance of Advent to look forward to the Peace of the Kingdom hardly generates enough wind to blow even a leaf from a tree sprouted from the stump once left for dead and seemingly attacked again and again. Jesse, the father of King David, once the proud father of many brave sons, later will recall that his sons and daughters have scattered, and some have lost their way. The real estate God assigned as far back as Abraham to Israel's sons and daughters has always proven to be contentious. Just this past week a Cease-Fire in Gaza held too briefly to offer much relief to weary soldiers fighting terrorists, intent on killing all Jews in the Holy Land and to Gaza residents whose lives the Hamas militants compromise every day by hiding weapons of war and launching strikes from among the residents.

And, what about the huge number of Christians who populated Ukraine? Peace has not come to them. Russia's President Putin, who early on in the war asserted that he is a Christian in the Orthodox practice of faith, had first denied that he intended to invade Ukraine even up to hours before launching destructive missiles, air strikes, artillery and infantry strikes on villages and cities that happened to be in path of his war plan. Ukraine once gave us that rousing Carol of the Bells as a vibrant expression of joy about the coming of Jesus, the Christ, but where might we hear that carol this Christmas Season?

As in so many Christmases in past generations, red bows this year will reflect not only Jesus' blood poured out for us to ransom us, but also will refer directly to blood spilled in both combatants and in those objectified as "collateral damage." At the historical coming of Jesus as the Christ, people want to state that a peace prevailed over the world as it was then known, a Peace/Pax of Rome, but one seemingly initiated by God to allow a welcome for Jesus. "Peace to His People on Earth," the tellers of Good, Good News sang like angels sang, and as such became a fleeting reality, like a cease-fire because a higher law of Reconciliation would shortly be at work. In the sky above Bethlehem, no rockets' red glare nor whistling artillery, no fearful or thunderous thuds at that first coming, but streams of angelic choirs brightened the night and chased away the fear of the dark as the realm of evil.

Back to the present, after a bombing attack on a Catholic Mass in the southern Philippines killed four and wounded over forty, Pope Francis expresses his broken heart and says he is "close to the families, to the people" of the region. The attack occurred at a Mass celebrated at a gymnasium in Mindanao State University in the south in the Philippines. Pope Francis concluded his message with "prayers that Christ the Prince of Peace will grant to all the strength to turn from violence and overcome every evil with good" and imparts his blessing "as a pledge of strength and consolation in the Lord."

This attack occurred in Marawi. The largest Muslim city in the Philippines, Marawi was besieged for five months in 2017 by pro-Islamic State militants. The commander of police in the region said that Sunday's attack could be revenge for a recent government operation which killed 11 members of an Islamist terror organization.

Meanwhile back in Italy, in Rome, the Church prepares to remember the first Christmas Creche ever assembled by that little man of Peace, St. Francis of Assisi, 800 years ago. The remembrance began with the Immaculate Conception and will last throughout the Christmas Season with Pope Francis offering a plenary indulgence to anyone who prays at a Creche in a church or chapel served by Franciscans. Hey, people, that's us. We are preparing a short prayer service especially to be used for Christmas week; our churches will be open for visits and prayers. Is there some chance that the Prince of Peace will use us to offer Peace to those without it? Can our prayers be efficacious? Yes.

Father John

CRS SPOTLIGHT The U.S. House introduced an appropriations bill that would reduce foreign aid in the fiscal year 2024 federal budget by $7 billion. At a time when global hunger and poverty are on the rise, these cuts would have devastating consequences for millions of people around the world. Foreign assistance accounts for less than 1% of the U.S. budget. You can make a difference to ensure this critical aid isn't reduced further! Visit www.crs.org to see how you can help!
